Final Rites For C. J. Pegler

Carlton J. Pegler, city treasurer here for 44 years, died in his home Dec. 21 following a lingering illness. He was 85 years old.

A native of England, Mr. Pegler came to Sierra Madre 65 years ago with his parents. Among his many accomplishments was the discovery and introduction of dichondra for lawns.

A pioneer citrus rancher, Mr. Pegler had been a director and president of the Sierra Madre-Lamanda Citrus Association, director of Lemon By-Products Plant, Corona; director and president of the Semi-Tropic District Fruit Exchange and director of Sunkist Growers.

He was a charter member and past master of the Sierra Madre Masonic Lodge, and was city treasurer until a few months ago when he retired.

He and his wife, Mabel E. Pegler, had been married for nearly 60 years. Other survivors are three sons, Harold C., Fullerton; Ernest P., Santa Ana, and Donald W., La Crescenta; six granchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow (Wednesday) in the Ripple Mortuary, with Rev. Carl Smith, of Fullerton Episcopal Church, and the Sierra Madre Masons officiating. Burial will be in San Gabriel Cemetery.

Deer, Tired of It All, Lies Down on Lawn

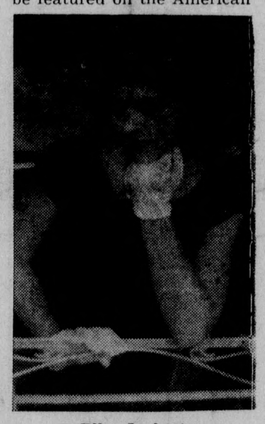

A tired and hungry deer, bewildered by too much civilization, collapsed on the lawn at 697 Woodland Dr. last Saturday.

Local police contacted the Pasadena Humane Society, a truck was dispatched and the deer was bundled aboard. It will be turned over to the game warden.

Police said there was nothing visibly wrong with the deer, excepting a few thousand fleas. The animal apparently collapsed from sheer exhaustion and fright.

Elka Joubert To Ride On Float

Elka Joubert, daughter of Mrs. Annelies Joubert, Rebstock, 769 Idle Hour Lane, has been selected from 72 San Gabriel Valley girls to be featured on the American

Elka Joubert

Trucking float in the forthcoming Pasadena Rose Parade.

Elka, 17, is a student at Pasadena High School where she is a member of Red Council, Youth Council, Ethenian Club and the school Drill Team.

She will be one of 32 Adrian models adorning floats on New Year's Day.

She arrived in this country six years ago from her native Germany and became a citizen of the United States this month.

Lions Club Makes Pioneer Day Plans

Propose Use of City Lot for Celebration

Pioneer Days, formerly an annual affair in Sierra Madre, may be reborn next summer under the sponsorship of the local Lions Club.

A plan to hold Pioneer Days next June was presented to the Parks and Recreation Commission last Wednesday evening by Harold Pangborn, chairman of the Lions Club committee in charge of the project.

Tentative plans, Mr. Pangborn said, propose the use of the vacant lot next to the Woman's Clubhouse as the site of booths and a carnival. Proceeds would be used for youth activities and city beautification.

SEVERAL DETAILS, of course, remain to be worked out before Pioneer Day plans are approved.

Mrs. Clark Casey, School Board representative on the Recreation Commission, suggested that Mr. Pangborn make an outline of the activities planned so the matter could be given further study.

The last Pioneer Days here was held five years ago and was a city-wide affair. Before this, the Lions Club sponsored the celebration every summer for about six years.

IN OTHER ACTION, the Recreation Commission voted to change admission charges at the swimming pool. If the City Council approves, the new fees will be 25 cents for children through 17 and 50 cents for everybody else.

The Commission feels that increased attendance as a result of the fee change would offset a loss of $372, based on last season's attendance figures.

As a guide to future recreation programs, the Commission plans to distribute a questionnaire through local clubs to determine what the people would like.

Returns from the questionnaire are expected to be ready for analysis in late January.

OTHER AGENDA items:

1. Chairman Frank Barbour accepted a check for $254.13 from Mrs. Janes B. Eastwood, which closed out an old account of the Sierra Madre Youth Activities Committee, a non-profit group dedicated to teen-age recreation a few years ago.

Mrs. Eastwood said there are no strings attached to the funds, but that they should be used for a teen-age recreation program.

2. It was voted, on a motion by James McCoy, that park facilities and equipment could not be loaned to private groups. The motion states in part:

"The renting of folding chairs to private parties is nothing more than a commercial operation in competion with private firms and is moreover not a public use. Therefore such is not proper."

3. Support was given to Walter Laursen, local band director, in his proposal to hold a band concert during early spring.

4. Chairman Barbour asked Tom Butch, assistant city administrator, to arrange a meeting to discuss the possible uses of the abandoned canyon pool.

5. It was suggested that the Little League ball field in Sierra Vista Park be named James Heasley Field, after the late fire chief, in recognition of donations made to a fund in his memory.

POST OFFICE CLOSED

The Post Office will be closed Christmas Day, Postmaster Charles Louk reminded Sierra Madreans yesterday. The only mail handled will be special delivery, perishables and any gift parcels that arrive Christmas morning.

Artists Hold Informal Picture Party

Friday evening Elmer and Myrtle Weese entertained a group of friends at an informal picture party.

After some general conversation, the host projected and commented upon a selection of his color photos of forest, field and meadow in autumn dress, made in October during a two-week trip by plane and an Eastern friend's car, to Vermont, New Hampshire, New York and Tennessee through the "Old Smokies."

THE AUTUMN rainbow hues of elms, aspens, maples, sourwood, tupelos, and white birches, caught against evergreens, clear skies, green meadows, shining streams and lakes, or under lowering, lead-gray masses of clouds, left individual images of an unforgettable tapestry.

Weese's "takes" show purposeful care in composition here, as they do in his well-known color photos and block prints of Monument Valley and his whole series of the California Missions.

The guests also viewed and discussed Myrtle Weese's finished genre painting depicting a modern mother with her "four angels," with its touch of Yuletide mysticism and playful humor, novel and amusing in idea.

LATER, Christmas and birthday toasts were drunk at the refectory table, including one to the First Lady of the U.S.A., in honor of a creamy table delicacy reputedly created by her Ladyship, known as "Mamie's Frosted Mint," prepared by the hostess and served with other dainties worthy of its highly select companionship.

Hiestand Opens 21st District Office

Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand, 21st District Republican, formally opened a permanent, full-time office on Wednesday, Dec. 17, in the basement of the North Hollywood Post Office at 11304 Chandler, corner of Bakman.

Two secretaries in the office are Mrs. Ila Porter and Mrs. Ruth Ferguson.

Ray E. Sages Celebrate Anniversary

Red and white roses were used to decorate the Ray E. Sage home, 150 N. Sunnyside, when they celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary.

The luncheon guests, all close friends of the Sages, were members of the John H. Reagan Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Those chapter officers in attendance were Mrs. William McDowell of Glendale, president; Mrs. Gracie Shepard, vice president; Mrs. Sylvia Stoudt, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Bertha Janss, historian; Mrs. Eula Johnson, director, all of Los Angeles.

The occasion also celebrated the birthdays of Mrs. H. Sealand, Mrs. Janss, Mrs. Shacklett and Mr. Sage and the golden anniversary of Mrs. Shepard's news-gathering.

Mrs. McDowell gave a report on the general convention held in St. Louis and presented a decorated cake to the honorees.

Mr. Sage, whose numerous hobbies include photography and hi-fi music, showed pictures taken on Highway 1 and Hearst's Castle made last summer on his trailer trip. The pictures were accompanied by taped narrations and music.

Mrs. Sage, a native of Alabama, is director-member of the chapter.

Three Hurt in Car Crash at Intersection

One of the most dangerous intersections in this area was the scene of a two-car crash last Wednesday evening.

Three persons were hurt in the collision at Sierra Madre Blvd. and Sierra Madre Villa, Pasadena. One driver, Allen Eugene Ladson, 28, of 644 Estrella St., Arcadia, suffered a brain concussion.

RICHARD D. JOHNSON, 45, of 2659 New York Dr., Pasadena, and his wife, Rosie, 43, riding in the other car, were less seriously hurt.

Police said Ladson's damaged car stopped about 150 feet away from the crash, where he left the vehicle.

Witnesses told police Ladson scaled a 10-foot bank and disappeared near Radio Station KWKW. He was found wandering in a residential area two blocks from the scene.

OFFICERS said they would seek a speeding complaint against Ladson, charging him with driving 50 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone.

The Johnsons were taken to St. Luke Hospital, where Mrs. Johnson was treated and released. Her husband was hospitalized with head injuries.

Col. Thurber Is New Red Cross Fund Chairman

Col. Walter D. Thurber has been appointed fund campaign chairman for the 1959 drive of the Sierra Madre Chapter, American Red Cross, Larry C. Lomax, Red Cross Board chairman here, announced yesterday.

The local chapter will hold its annual dinner meeting Jan. 19 at 6:30 p.m. in the Woman's Clubhouse. The public is invited.

A special feature of the meeting will be a talk by Mrs. Kay Ziller on heart surgery. Mrs. Ziller is a representative of the Los Angeles Regional Blood Center.

Sen. Bartlett From Alaska Parade Head

Alaska's United States Sen. E. L. "Bob" Bartlett has been named grand marshal of the 70th Annual Tournament of Roses on New Year's Day.

Bartlett, who was elected to the senate on Nov. 25, accepted the invitation of Stanley K. Brown, Tournament president, to become grand marshal, Pasadena's highest honor, when Gov. William A. Egan of Alaska, previously appointed, entered the hospital last week for an emergency operation.

Sen. Bartlett said he would arrive in Pasadena with his wife and daughter, Sue, on Dec. 27, and that the family would attend the coronation and ball for Rose Queen Pamela Prather and her court a day later.

Top Farce Starts Dec. 26 At Playhouse

"The Waltz of the Toreadors" a French farce starring John Abbott and Elaine Edwards, opens at the Pasadena Playhouse Friday, Dec. 26.

A frustrated romantic, Gen. St. Pe, played by Abbott, still dreams of an ideal love affair. The plot concerns the sudden re-appearance of one of his dream-girls of long ago. Seventeen years ago during an intoxicating waltz, he had whispered that she should wait for him until his invalid wife should pass away and set him free.

But after 17 years, she has grown impatient. Starting with this absurd situation, French playwright Jean Anouilh builds his New York Drama Critics' Circle Award-winning play, directed by Barbara Vajda.

In addtion to Abbott and Miss Edwards, the cast includes Maida Severn as the nagging wife, Clive L. Halliday as the general's physician and rival, Nester Mitto as his vapid young secretary who takes the fancy of his sweetheart, Audrey O'Hara as the French dressmaker faced with the task of adorning the general's two ugly-duckling daughters.

Hammerschmitt Promoted in National Guard

Julias E. Hammrschmitt, 275 E. Orange Grove, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Army Reserve.

He will retain his duties as the staff dental officer, 311th Logistical Command, largest Army headquarters reserve unit in the United States.

During World War II he served in the Asiatic theater for 14 months. In civilian life, Lt. Col. Hammerschmitt has his own dental practice in Alhambra. He lives with his wife, Yvonne, and their children, Robert, 10; Vretoria, three children, Robert, 10; Vretoria, 9, and Denise, 6.

BOARD MEETING

The next meeting of the Board of Education will be held Tuesday, Jan. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in Sierra Madre School, instead of the previously scheduled date of Jan. 5. The change was made to permit Board members to hear Dr. James B. Conant of Harvard University speak before the Los Angeles County School Board Association in Long Beach.

Vote Initiative Cost on Increase

SACRAMENTO — (CNS)— The cost of getting initiatives of the people qualified for the election ballot probably will go up between $50,000 and $100,000 as a result of the general election vote last Nov. 4.

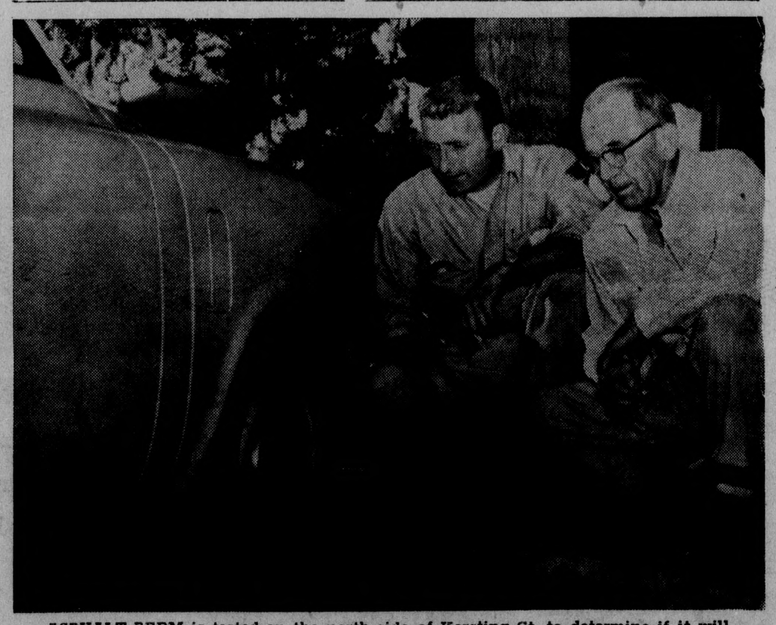

In order to qualify for the ballot in 1959 through 1962, proposed initiatives will need 420,462 signatures of registered voters, compared to the requirement of the past four years' of 322,429. Initiatives to the Legislature or referendum measures will need 262,789 signatures, compared to 201,518 required for the past four years.

The people's initiative requirement is based on 8 per cent of the total vote cast for governor, and the others on 5 per cent of the total gubernatorial vote. This was 5,255,777 in the November election, Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan reported.

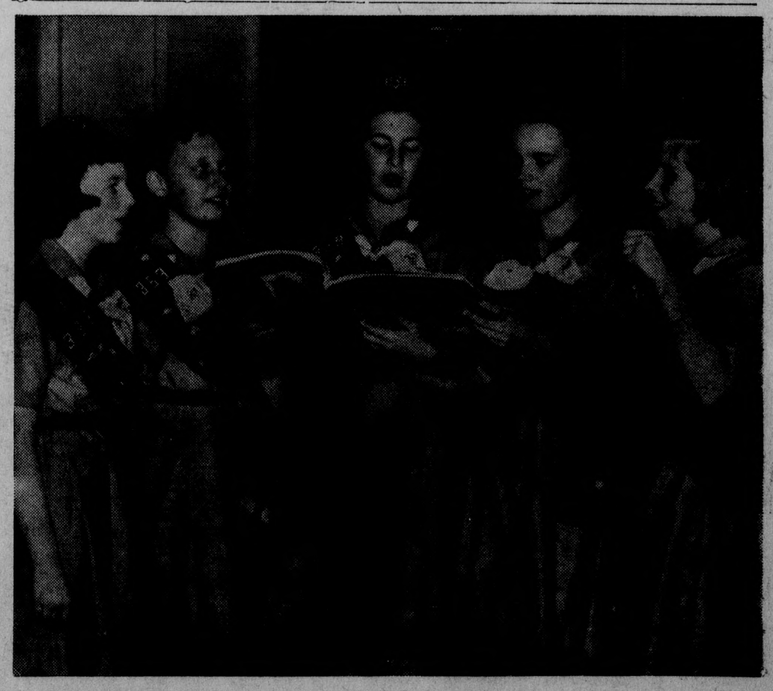

With the cost of gathering signatures estimated at between 50 cents and $1 per signature—depending on the speed with which they are needed—the costs of initiative campaigns thus will be increased.

DANE GRADUATES

William T. Dane, son of Mrs. Edith Dane, 566 Manzanita, was graduated recently from the Army Language School at Monterey. He specialized in Russian.

ASPHALT BERM is tested on the north side of Kersting Ct. to determine if it will prevent angle parked cars from rolling backwards. Examining the berm are Fred Richter, Street Department foreman, and Ben Mobley, superintendent of streets. City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington said the test was successful. He will recommend to the City Council tonight (Tuesday) that the berm be placed in six or eight parking stalls.

AMONG MANY groups of young carolers bringing Christmas songs to Hastings Ranch and Sierra Madre were Judy Morris, Ann Baker, Janet Lindstrom, Susan McMahon and Kathy Donohue, left to right, representatives of Girl Scout Troops 339 and 363. Girl Scouts throughout the East Pasadena area serenaded friends and shutins Friday night.

Editorial

Hail, 'Saint Nickolous'

It's little wonder that Saint Nick is especially generous to the American people. History proves that the Americans have done a lot for Saint Nick.

According to Donald Ludgin, editor of the holiday articles in World Book Encyclopedia, the Americans have given Saint Nick a new name, a new face and figure, and a new means of transportation.

THE ORIGINAL European version of Saint Nick was a tall, angular man who rode on a bony, gray mare. Both the horse and Saint Nick looked as if they hadn't had a good meal in some time. The Saint had deep sunken eyes, and wore a flowing, threadbare cloak and a black skullcap.

The early English settlers in this country started giving Saint Nicholas his "New Look." The English children adopted the legendary Christmas figure from the Dutch, but they had trouble pronouncing "Saint Nickolous." Somehow the name changed to "Santa Kalouf," and finally it was corrupted to "Santa Claus."

However, this was only the beginning. In 1809 Washington Irving, in his "Knickerbocker's History of New York," wrote of the Saint as the guardian of New York City. Irving described Saint Nick as a jolly fellow with a broad-brimmed hat and huge breetches. He taught Saint Nick to smoke a long pipe, and, in the story, replaced his shuffling hay-burner with a trim wagon that floated over New York house-tops.

A SHORT TIME later, Saint Nicholas' transformation was aided by Clement Moore in his famous poem, "The Visit From Saint Nicholas," written in 1822. Moore, a professor of Divinity in a New York Theological Seminary, gave Saint Nick a sleigh, twinkling eyes, cheeks like roses, nose like a cherry, and a round little belly.

Today's Santa Claus is by no means streamlined, but he is a far cry from the lean, ascetic, somberly dressed fellow who, for centuries, on Christmas Eve, guided his mare through the streets of Europe.

Affairs of State . . .

Teachers Seek More Support From State

The California Teachers Association State Council of Education has endorsed additional state support for California schools during the next fiscal year of nearly $76 million.

The Teachers Association wants the legislature to add about $48 million to the state's current rate of support for the regular school program; $12 million for state mandated programs in driver education, physically handicapped and mentally retarded, and the remainder to reimburse schools which maintain school years longer than the 175 day minimum.

No additional sums were mentioned on behalf of the so-called "gifted" students, that is, young people who are away ahead of the normal and need additional instruction to develop fully their potentialities.

IN THE CTA JOURNAL, Arthur F. Corey, executive secretary of the association, says "This is the time for boldness."

"More money is not the only answer," he stated in discussing educational problems, "but all the indicated answers will cost more money. Ten billion dollars a year, wisely added to our present annual expenditure for public education (nationally) would go far in turning national crisis into national opportunity."

And in a speech, Corey criticized people who are attempting to get more out of the educational dollar, stating that the short-cuts and panaceas which they recommend "would destroy the very quality which they are demanding."

AT THE SAME time, he declared the Compton College experiment in using televised lectures in place of teachers for several courses, is the type of program which sacrifices quality on the altar of economy."

Televised lectures, of course, might do away with some teaching jobs, which would not make the California Teachers Association very happy. Televised lectures are new enough to be given a fair trial and a determination made as to whether they will work as a means of cutting down the high cost of teachers.

Of course, the bulk of the additional money the association wants the legislature to appropriate in the face of a deficit budget, would go toward increasing teachers' salaries throughout the state, on the usual basis of something for each teacher, regardless of merit.

THIS WOULD be despite the fact that the CTA Journal for December reports that in California average salaries for teachers—$5,925 — are higher than in any other state in the union. This is $125 per year higher than New York, which ranks second.

How much of the money the CTA asks from the next legislature will be appropriated, remains to be seen. Undoubtedly some additions will be made to the educational budget, but in the face of the estimated deficit and the threat of new taxes, it is not likely the organization will get all the money it seeks.

May this Christmas be but another happy marker along the road of a good life!

Letters to the Editor

Lee Shippey asks What Do You Think?

CITY FORESIGHT

Dear Sir:

The lead story in last week's Sierra Madre News, "Valley Water District Annexation Is Oked," shows clearly the wisdom and foresightedness of our city administrator and Council.

Had not Mr. Bevington and the Council pushed the formation of a separate water district, Sierra Madre would undoubtedly face absorption by the Metropolitan Water District. We would also face back tazes of an estimated $800,000 as the price of joining a water district which could not benefit us in the foreseeable future.

We are developing an excellent water system in Sierra Madre, built through the years at considerable expense to the taxpayers here.

Why should we be coerced into sacrificing our system simply because some other cities in the area did not have the vision to see even a few years into the future?

Sincerely,
W.W.W.

QUESTIONS BALL FIELD

Dear Sir:

Rumor has it that the Little League here wants more than one baseball field in the new park (Sierra Vista).

Now I have no serious complaint so far as the Little League is concerned, but its officials and the parents of Little League age youngsters should remember that there are many other individuals and groups in town who also desire recreation space.

Little League ball is played only a few months of the year. What happens to the space occupied by a ball field after the season is over?

Why not provide recreational facilities which may be used by both children and adults, for years to come? Good tennis courts, for example!

Yours truly,

NATIVITY SCENE

Dear Sir:

What is the significance—to Sierra Madre youngsters—of the beautiful and sacred Nativity scene in Kersting Court.

Youngsters, obviously unaware of the place in history which the scene typifies, make a playground of it.

One day last week a group of them removed the Child from the manger and made a hand-ball of it—throwing it from one to the other!

Others play hide and seek in the area. The loose straw is kicked around until on Monday afternoon it literally covered the entire plaza. Whose mission is it to correct this? —WDT

Western men used to brag that the West was an area in which men were men and women were glad of it, a statement the women rarely challenged, though many had information to the contrary. But lately it seems that Western women are taking the dominant role in many activities the men once looked on as their own, including gun play.

The newspapers continually report the shooting of errant husbands or misbehaving boyfriends by ladies, and they seem to be getting their share of the holdup money, too. It isn't at all unusual for some sweet old lady to walk up to a bank teller with a stern demand for a bag full of money and to walk out with it unmolested, showing nerve and sangfroid which put most men, especially including bank tellers, to shame.

On the other hand, it frequently happens that other would be stickup men, inspired by such reports, make the mistake of trying to bluff a woman bank teller, and come off second best. My morning paper, the day this is written, reports successful holdups by a dizzy blonde about 20 years old and a sweet old lady, while a woman teller to whom a would-be bandit handed a threatening note cooly dodged out of her cage and gave the alarm.

As every married man should know, it's awfully hard to bluff a woman.

THE SAME issue of my newspaper a few days ago reported the accidental shooting of two grown-up children—men well past voting age—who were practicing the fast draw. Both of them shot themselves. That coincidence was in the Los Angeles area. Half the small boys one knows nowadays are practicing the fast draw, assuming that if some actors who never saw a ranch which wasn't a movie set and never fired a pistol until they got jobs in Western movies can become supergunmen by practice, they can, too.

But one wonders why those grown men were practicing the draw. Was it because of adult childishness or because they, too, were thinking of going into the holdup business?

The only thing that seems certain is that they weren't bank tellers. I suspect that in the old days a good many bank employes and stage coach drivers and barkeeps and business men were pretty fast on the draw. But the West ain't quite what it used to be. If any bank tellers are practicing the fast draw now, I suspect, they must be ladies.

Of all the packages under the tree, the most precious is that bulky, ill-wrapped mystery present from the Second Grader ("Try and guess, Momma — it's something you've always wanted!") Whether a clothespin letterholder, pair of lumpy candlesticks—or better still, a small handprint in clay—it was made with Tender Loving Care (in the patient presence of Teacher).

And of all the Yuletide loot this dearly imperfect child-made gift will be the one cherished 20 years from now.

In addition to raising two sons, Stephen, 4½, and Billy, 3½, Frances teaches music at a private school, has five piano pupile, singe (coloratura) and acts in musicals, directs the church choir and plays the organ.

ON CHRISTMAS night, Frank Loza, local landscape gardener, will board the train for Guadalajara and Mexico City—and five weeks of visiting with friends and relatives. His wife, Vivian, will remain here with the family, but she plans to make the journey come spring.

Senor Loza is looking forward to the Guadalupana Fiesta (Novena for Our Lady of Guadalupe) held at his birthplace, Arandas, Jan. 4 to 12. As is the custom, he and a group of friends will foot the bill for one day's festivities—their donation going for fireworks, music, flowers, etc.

The celebration begins at 4 o'clock in the morning—when the town band goes to the church and then marches down the street, stopping at the donor's homes for special serenatas. (Sounds like fun — hmmm, there's just time enough to pack—)

Methodist Candlelight Services Set

A Carol and Candlelight Service will mark the third Christmas eve observance in the sactuary of the Sierra Madre Methodist Church when the Chancel Choir appears in concert at 11 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 24.

Dale B. Moore, featured soloist, will sing "O Holy Night" (Adam), and Margaret Hannaford will sing the soprano solo "In the Inn" (McBradd). THE PRICE OF PRESCRIPTIONS
One reason why people may be surprised at the price of their prescription is because it isn't a regular expense item like other (and often more expensive) items such as dinner out, auto repairs or clothes for the kids. Yet the savings afforded in prevention of hospitalization or loss of job time more than make up for the price of the prescription. Gain full benefit from your doctor's expert care by bringing your prescriptions to our registered pharmacists.

Mrs. W. E. Dunning Appointed Cancer Society Chairman

Mrs. Robert E. Ringle, county chairman of volunteers, of the American Cancer Society, has announced the appointment of Mrs. Warren E. Dunning, 3323 Barhite Street, as district chairman of volunteers, for the Pasadena-Foothill and West San Gabriel Valley areas. Mrs. Dunning received an A.C.S. award for her outstanding service as chairman last year, and accepted the post again for 1959.

IN ACCEPTING her re-appointment, Mrs. Dunning pointed out the rapid increase in the San Gabriel Valley area population, emphasizing the need for greater expansion of cancer service.

"We are looking forward to an expansion in all our fields of cancer work this year as many new facts and promising developments broaden our fields of knowledge," she stated.

In addition to being district chairman of volunteers, Mrs. Dunning is a board member of the Pasadena Y.W.C.A., president of the Pomona College Alumni Club, a member of the Boys Republic Auxiliary, and is associated with the Huntington Memorial Tumor Clinic.

'Living the Power Of Christmas' Is Sermon Topic

"Living the Power of Christmas" will be the sermon at both the 9:15 and 11 o'clock worship services Sunday morning, Dec. 28, at the Santa Anita Chruch of Religious Science, 778 S. Rosemead Blvd.

According to Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister, a new world of possibilities and potentialities theretofore unknown to the mind of man was ushered in through the birth, life and teachings of Jesus Christ.

Jesus demonstrated at the level of human experience the power of God's love, showing how man may live under universal laws transcending known mental and physical laws. As man understands and lives out the power of love released into the world that first Christmas, he will find himself living at a new level of experience.

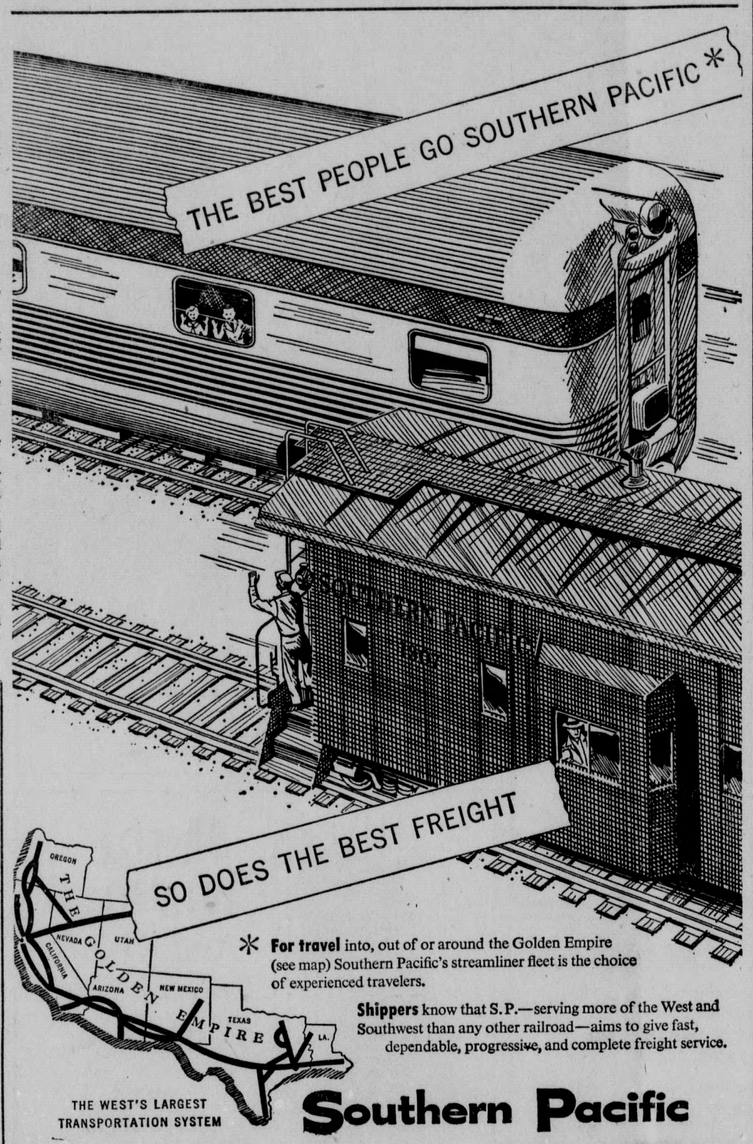

This discussion will lead into the series of Sunday morning talks in January explaining "What Religious Science Is" and its application to every day living.

PENSION PLANS

SACRAMENTO — (CNS)— The state Department of Industrial Relations said negotiated pension plans now are provided for in collective bargaining agreements covering 861,000 California workers. The Department said this is 62 per cent of the 1,381,000 workers covered by 1,582 agreements in effect in mid-1958.

LESSON-SERMON

Is the birth and mission of Christ Jesus the evidence of spiritual power in the nature of God, or is the energy measurement of the atom the creative force? This question is discussed in part in the Lesson-Sermon "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" delivered in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

Living Yule Tree Arrives Green and Departs Green

There are few sadder sights than a Christmas tree when the holiday is over—stripped of its ornaments and left to its fate on the backyard trash pile. Half the needles have been shed on the living room floor. It is dry and brittle, quickly tindered at the first touch of a match.

What a difference is the living Christmas tree. It's freshness is undiminished even after long days in the dryness of the home. It arrives green and departs green, taking all its needles with it. It eliminates the over-worrisome fire hazard. And after the holiday it is used as a tub plant on the patio or in the yard until next year when it's moved inside once again.

SMALL WONDER that many members of the California Association of Nurserymen report a boom in living Christmas tree sales. "The boom is gaining momentum, too," says one. "We have to stock more trees each year to keep up with the demand."

One of the most popular living Christmas trees—especially in Southern California—is the Deodar Cedar. Its grayish-green foliage has known wide use outdoors for years and is increasingly being adapted to tubs where its growth is slow, making it reusable.

Northern Californians make wider use of two spruces — Colorado Blue Spruce and Norway Spruce. Both are slow-growing and can be kept in tubs or years if started out small. Growth habit is compact and pyramidal in the Christmas tradition.

YOUR TASTE may run to the long needle pines which have an informal quality about them that is most appealing. Monterey Pine, Scotch Pine and Japanese Black Pine are all suitable for more than one season indoors if purchased small.

The initial cost of a living Christmas tree is slightly hgher than one off a lot, but its evergreen freshness and multiple use make it a bargain in the long run.

Christmas Season Among Year's Most Hazardous

By Roy O. Gilbert, M.D.
L. A. County Health Officer

Although enough of the original Christmas spirit remains to make Christmas one of the most joyous of holidays, crowds and noise, hurry, irritation, and traffic congestion all contribute to make the season one of the most hazardous of the year as well.

Gradual changes have been taking place in the Christmas holiday season since the early part of the 19th Century. Formerly a religious festivity celebrated throughout the Christian world on the birthday of Christ, with the passing of the years Christmas has become an increasingly social occasion.

USE OF the evergreen tree at Christmas time is a custom that originated in Germany. It has spread to many parts of the world during the last century and a half, and has been wholeheartedly accepted in this country.

So much a part of the festivity have the trees become, asa matter of fact, that Christmas just wouldn't be the same without them. As recently as 1926, it is recorded, a giant redwood in the General Grant National Park was dedicated as the "Nation's Christmas Tree."

Outside of traffic accidents, perhaps the most publicized yuletide hazard is the Christmas tree itself, which has become one of the symbols of Christmas to a great number of people. However, the Christmas tree is but one of the many hazards peculiar to this holiday season.

It may sometimes seem redundant to repeat that extra safety precautions must be observed during this holiday period as certain seasonal hazards make their appearance. Nevertheless, statistics of accidents and deaths due to Christmas hazards indicate that safety warnings cannot be too often repeated.

A FEW precautions particularly applicable to the Christmas season are herewith listed.

Be sure that toys are not made of paper, cotton or plastics that are inflammable.

Do not give babies or young children toys with parts that may be removed and swallowed or inhaled.

Avoid toys with sharp edges and points or shooting and target toys, all of which may injure the eyes.

When giving chemistry sets, air rifles, motor scooters, bicycles, etc., to older children, always be sure the gifts are accompanied by whatever instructions are necessary for safety.

Put the Christmas tree in a container of water or wet sand to keep it moist and lessen the danger of fire. When the needles start falling off, it is drying out and should be discarded. It will last longer if kept out-of-doors until a few days before Christmas.

Use only approved electrical fixtures and wiring on the tree, and inspect all cords and connections before using them. Do not leave the tree lighted when the family is away from home.

Do not operate electric trains around Christmas trees. Spruce, cedar, and pines are filled with pitch and resin and ignite easily.

And drive carefully. This means that you have to watch the other fellow's driving as well as your own. If planning to drive a car, DON'T drink intoxicating beverages.

It always gives me great pleasure at this time of year to pause and thank all who have given me such wonderful support with this column and encouraged me to continue with it.

I hope you all have a wonderful Christmas and the happiest of New Years.

MR. AND MRS. Edwin Pyle had 20 guests at an alfresco luncheon a week ago Sunday. The occasion was held to honor Mr. Pyle's mother, Mrs. Eugenia Pyle, who was celebrating her 84th birthday. Last week Mrs. Pyle entertained 16 members of the Alumni Association of the Delta Gamma Sorority at its annual Christmas luncheon and gift exchange.

MR. AND MRS. Henry Hitt Crane, Jr. of Old House Road had a dinner party last Saturday night to honor Dr. and Mrs. John Phillips, who recently moved to Claremont. Dr. Phillips, a retired minister, officiated at the wedding of Mr. Crane's parents 43 years ago. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crane, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Munson, and Mr. Howard Gaul. The Cranes are also planning a big family gathering for Christmas day.

MR. AND MRS. John Hoffman of Wynn Road are having a big family gathering on Christmas eve. They are celebrating the arrival of their son, Jerald, who is on leave from Fort Sill, Okla. He plans to be here until after the first of the year and is full of plans for reunions with his old friends.

THE AIKMAN ARMSTRONG home on Fairpoint will ring out with Christmas cheer again as the neighbors gather at their home for the annual caroling party.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN Fricke of Barhite entertained a group of friends last Saturday night at a midnight buffet. Members of this group are Mrs. Fricke's school chums from junior high school days.

On Christmas they will have 15 from the family for brunch.

THE C. L. WELLS of Vosburg returned last week from an annual three-week trip to Phoenix, Ariz., where they renewed old friendships. They stayed at the Squaw Peak Inn. They are having friends in for Christmas.

MRS. GEORGE L. MORRISON of 1878 Sierra Madre Villa entertained with Mrs. Charles A. Dickenson for the Michillinda Woman's Club. The motiff this year was bells, and the entire decor was carried out in this manner. There were 30 women at the annual luncheon.

DR. AND MRS. Lincoln Wilson of Old House Road entertained at a holiday dinner party last Saturday evening. Their guests included Messrs. and Mesdames Gardner Wilson, Jack Rogers, George Holmes, Ernest Maurin, and Drs. and Mesdames Robert Mueller, Richard Compton and Edgar Flentie.

MR. AND MRS. Carl Warnick of 1135 Sierra Madre Villa get my vote this year as the two most graceful of hosts and hostesses. They have had a series of Christmas parties, any one of which would have put me under the table.

On the 12th they entertained 35 people from the L.D.S. Mormon Church. On the 14th they had a group of 24 in for dinner. On the 17th, they entertained 24 at an office force party from Alne Warnick and Mahew. On the 22nd they had 32 people from a birthday club to which they belong in for a dinner party. Now they are waiting for a dozen or more members of their family to arrive for Christmas from Idaho Falls in Idaho. Mrs. Warnick's mother, Mrs. George Brunt, has already arrived.

THE WYMAN R. Williams of Lindaloa Lane had a champagne Christmas party on the 14th with 80 guests coming and going. They, too, and planning a family gathering for Christmas day.

THE MESITA ROAD gang gathered at the Paul Siechert home for supper last week. The purpose of the party was to plan and erect their hillside lights. I don't know how, but they got it up that night.

MRS. FRED STEVER, Mrs. Marvin Loomis, Mrs. Russ Pooler, Mrs. Peter Hurtig and Mrs. Edward Masterson (left to right) prepare to leave for Christmas party at County Hospital, arranged by Las Jardineras for a ward of bedridden elderly women. Las Jardineras members made terrariums as gifts for the patients. The terrariums, planted with tiny plants, are sealed and hence provide their own climate, need little or no care. Floral gifts to hospital patients are a continuing project of the Hastings Ranch home and garden club.

Club Juniors Have Annual Yule Party

An innovation in Shakespeare Club Juniors' monthly luncheon series was the holiday progressive luncheon held last week.

The party started with cocktails at the home of Mrs. Edward C. Vail, 3805 Newhaven Rd. Luncheon was served in the Arcadia home of Mrs. Claude R. Hickman, 50 W. Orange Grove. The guests traveled to Sierra Madre for dessert at the home of Mrs. Robert F. Gorden, 170 Coburn.

Mrs. Hugh J. Simpson Jr., party chairman, was assisted by Mrs. George E. Berger and Mrs. Donald Jay Bent.

Last Saturday was chosen by the juniors for the annual Christmas party for their children.

Santa arrived at Stratford House and after visiting with the children and presenting them with a small gift, the guests saw Bob Baker's puppet show.

The day's festivities were rounded out by the serving of bag lunches, milk and cup cakes.

This annual affair was sponsored by the sports section with Mrs. John M. D'Zurko, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Jerry Hendrickson and Mrs. James O. Schellin.

Santa's helpers were Scott Hendrickson, son of Mrs. Hendrickson, and Mark Spajian, son of Mrs. Robert Spajian.

Girl Scout Troop 386 Has Court of Awards

Girl Scout Troop 386 had its Court of Awards in Don Benito School Auditorium with Mrs. Zelda Epstein and Mrs. Kay Mobus, leaders, making the presentations.

Those members receiving awards were Wendy Welliver, dabbler badge, troop crest, membership star, and membership card; Ann Huber, dabbler badge, membership star, troop crest and membership card; Marilyn Roth, dabbler badge, troop crest, membership star and membership card; and Marlene Epstein, membership star, membership card, hospitality badge, troop crest, and chapter badge.

ALSO, Gail Templar, dabbler badge, membership star, membership card, star badge, troop crest, homemaker badge and back-yard camper badge; Barbara Haugen, dabbler badge, troop crest, membership star and membership card; Judy Carter, membership star, membership card, dabbler badge, troop crest and homemaker badge; and Christine Colgan, mammal badge, membership star, membership card, dabbler badge and troop crest.

Also, Patty Cooly, membership star, membership card, dabbler badge and troop crest; Brenda Bartling, child care badge, membership star, membership card, dabbler badge and troop crest; Jane Mobus, membership star, membership card, troop crest and dabbler badge; and Andrea Amber, membership star, membership card, troop crest and dabbler badge.

OTHER MEMBERS receiving troop crests, membership stars and cards were Pam Farnsworth, Lynn Miller, Ellen Whited and Lois Harding.

The girls completed their Christmas service project, the trimming of a manzanita branch with ornaments and gifts, which was given the Junior Red Cross to be used as a table decoration at one of the hospitals. Some of the girls also donated the peep shows they had made to earn their dabbler badge.

Following the troop's caroling in the upper Ranch last Friday night, the members met at Wendy Welliver's house for the troop birthday party and exchange of gifts.

UP ON . . . Hastings Hill

Marge and Lucie wish you the best of the season—all the party fare you can eat without adding an ounce to your curves, gifts that are the right color and the right size, all the bills paid by Jan. 1 so you can enjoy the Rose Bowl game from your box seat on the 49 yard line. You're quite welcome.

Carolers have been buzzing about more than usual this warm Christmas season, most of them in the 10-15 age bracket, but Harry and Eleanore Masser corralled a group of over 25ers for caroling in the ranch Sunday night—and it was fun for all, particularly the participants.

Betty and Chuck Coates had friends in for a holiday cocktail Friday night. Rolly and Yolonda Whited turned their bridge night Saturday into a party event. So did John and Theo Calmer, entertaining their regular bridge club.

Hoping for skiing snow but not really expecting any are the John McGraws, who take off right after Christmas for a few days at Mammouth. The Bill Hogoboom family is loading all five children plus a mountain of gifts into the station wagon Christmas in Woodland with family and old friends.

That fast moving man you saw rushing around last Saturday was not a challenger for the foot race record, but Craig Boorey, member of the outdoor holiday decoration committee, gathering up prizes from the generous Sierra Madre merchants for last night's judging.

It's a shame this week's issue had to come out early since we will have to wait until next issue to list the winners in the contest. From the looks of things, the judges had a rough time last night trying to decide the winners. Each year the decorations become more beautiful and judging by the number of cars touring the area, people come from miles around to enjoy our handiwork.

The true holiday spirit has not been prevailing. Residents on Cartwright knocked themselpes out trying to think of something for a curb decoration. Candy canes were finally decided on and the paint brushes were put to work. Shortly after the installation, Lou and Wanda Dickson had their's stolen.

Relatives are already arriving in the Ranch for the holidays. The Albert Schultzes of Milwaukee arrived last week to visit their daughter and son-in-law, the Paul Kaponyas, and the George Schluters welcomed her mother, Mrs. Mary Skinner of Oakland, last weekend.

Bill and Alice Rice and children, Susan and Bill, are back in the Ranch at 1035 Pepperhill. They sold their home on Rexford more than a year ago and were living in Northern California, across the river from the old ghost town of Timbuctoo. They are happy to be back but are faced with the problem of where to keep their two pet sheep—any suggestions.

Merry Christmas 'n stuff.

Later in the afternoon, the Voyagers were hostesses at a tea, given at the sanitarium, honoring the patients. Music for the affair was provided by the Music Shop in Sierra Madre.

HOW TO WIN AD-RIME PRIZES

The arrow points to the "Guideline": Repair Service Must Be Near.

Ad-RIME lines must tie in and rhyme with the Guideline. Your entry MUST carry the "Hidden Slogan." Find it among the ads—one word in each column starting at the left. You don't have to buy anything to win prizes but MUST find and write the hidden Slogan. Preference is given to AD-RIME lines that tie in well and BOOST LOCAL TRADE. Get the swing—the two lines are a "jingle." One which can't win is:
"Save the Grief and Buy It Here."
but you must write original ones. Good luck — and keep trying.

Occasionally, we overhear
a conversation sad and drear, bemoaning troubles quite severe because the dealer isn't near!

Well, far from us to interfere with jeer, or leer, or smirky sneer
— so — this advice we volunteer:
"Get wise, my dear, and BUY IT HERE."
